Dear Mr. Martin:

Congratulations! I have been informed by the Phi Theta Kappa Executive Director that your essay "Great Expectations" has been chosen for publication in Nota Bene, the literary anthology of the Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society. It is indeed an honor to have been one of 27 selected from 1,542 submissions.

Nota Bene is published annually to showcase exceptional work by Phi Theta Kappa members. It is distributed to more than 1,700 libraries nationwide and abroad. Your inclusion in this publication brings honor to the Hawaii Community College program at the University of Hawaii's Center in West Hawaii.

Congratulations again on this outstanding accomplishment.

Sincerely,
Sandra T. Sakaguchi
